Memorandum of Law in Support of Denial of Motion to Remand

Defendant's Motion to Remand is based partly on 28 U.S.C. 1446 (b), alleging that Plaintiff's Removal was procedurally defective.

Plaintiff replies that a Motion to Remand is subject to 28 U.S.C. 1447 (c) and that Defendant's Motion to Remand was not timely and must therefore be denied.

In Re. Bethesda Memorial Hospital, (11th Cir 1997) (a motion to remand by the opposing party or the court must be entered within thirty days of the removal pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1447.)

The Plaintiff further states that said Removal was procedurally correct as it fell within the purview of 28 U.S.C. 1446 (b) being predicated on the state court Order on Motion for Contempt dated May 26, 2004 in the Superior Court of Colquitt County.

Defendant's Motion to Remand also alleges that an opportunity for Remand beyond the thirty-day limit exists because Plaintiff's Removal case lacks subject matter jurisdiction, which circumvents time limits in 28 USC 1447(c) and is further cause for dismissal and remand.

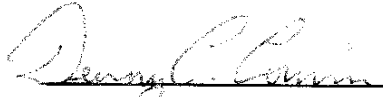

Plaintiff replies that his Notice of Removal is predicated on a 42 U.S.C. 1983 claim stated therein. This claim is linked to the state Order on Motion for Contempt.

Congress has granted jurisdiction to this Court to hear claims related to Federal statutes pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1331. Based on the 42 U.S.C. 1983 claim this Court has subject matter jurisdiction.

In conclusion, Plaintiff maintains that this Court has subject-matter jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claims pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 1983, 28 U.S.C. §§1331, 1441 (a) (b) in that the claim involves a Federal question and a subsequent violation of his Liberty Interest, plus infringement upon his fundamental Federal constitutional rights, especially the Right to Privacy inter alia, which entitles him to jurisdiction of this Court under 42 U.S.C. 1983.
