

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF APPEALS OF FLORIDA
SECOND DISTRICT

WILLIAM A. CABANA, pro se, v.

Case No.:

JAMES ZINGALE, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, FLORIDA
DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE
(In his official capacity)

SUGGESTION FOR CERTIFICATION
TO THE FLORIDA SUPREME COURT

Comes now the petitioner, pro se and prepared with the assistance of counsel, pursuant to Fl. R. App. Proc. Rule 9.125 (a) to suggest this Second District Court of Appeals certify the constitutional challenges to the alimony statutes of this appeal to the Florida Supreme Court. (Art. V § 3 (b) (5) Fla. Const.) The questions presented are,

- I. Whether the “Dissolution of Marriage” statute alimony provision (§ 61.08, Fla. Stat.) impermissibly infringes Art. I, § 23, Fla. Const., Right of Privacy?
- II. Whether the “Dissolution of Marriage” statute alimony provision (§ 61.08, Fla. Stat.) impermissibly infringes Art. II, § 3, Fla. Const., Separation of Powers?
